What I am saying is the final film should deviate from your outline. Focus on listening all the way to the end. Listen to what the story is telling you, and the film will be greater for it. Using the mantra of "making a movie" will help you craft a richer story and create clarity. 2. You are making a movie, not a documentary

'The Favourite' is one of the best films of the year. Here's how it was put together. An 18th-century period piece in which the period gets redefined and transmuted throughout, Yorgos Lanthimos's The Favourite emphasizes the old adage, "kill them with kindness," at times almost literally. An anachronistic comedy in which backstabbing and political gain are all the fiery rage, the film ...
